

word	615	burn out
definition		to exhaust an energy source through burning example		When the fire burnt out, we could see that the house was completely destroyed.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2010-03-07
		© www.vizzz.com

word	198	patch up
definition		to try to mend a relationship example		David and Jackie had a very serious quarrel, but decided to patch things up to save their marriage.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2010-03-03
		© www.vizzz.com

word	928	egg on
definition		to encourage a person to do something example		Mr Jones decided to go to the party as his wife kept egging him on.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2010-03-06
		© www.vizzz.com

word	441	track down definition		to seek or try to find something or someone example		The police are trying to track down an old lady who left a bag full of money on a bus.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2010-03-02
		© www.vizzz.com

word	210	polish up
definition		to improve at something example		I must polish up on my English as It will be used during my job interview next week.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2010-03-05
		© www.vizzz.com

word	526	pay in
definition		to put money in your bank account example		I paid the cheque into the bank to cover my weekly expenses.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2010-03-01
		© www.vizzz.com

word	55	break up
definition		to break something into many pieces example		I dropped my mother's favourite vase and it broke up completely. This made her very upset.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2010-03-04
		© www.vizzz.com

word		flash cards
definition		vizzz credit card sized flash cards - 7 days of revision example		Instructions: Print on A4 paper. CUT into credit card sized units, or FOLD, first vertically then horizontally 3 times to form a concertina like pocket chart.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		7 days from: 2010-03-01
		© www.vizzz.com