

word	306	wait up
definition		to stay awake waiting for someone or something example		I arrived home late after the party and my mother was angry as she had waited up half the night.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2024-05-16
		© www.vizzz.com

word	51	book up
definition		to reserve all of something example		We'd better book up all the space for next month's conference, as last year we didn't have enough.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2024-05-12
		© www.vizzz.com

word	704	look out
definition		to be careful example		Look out! There's a car coming in your direction!
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2024-05-15
		© www.vizzz.com

word	573	strap in
definition		to fasten someone securely, usually in a vehicle example		The woman put the twins into the pram, strapped them in, and they all left the house.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2024-05-11
		© www.vizzz.com

word	979	rat on
definition		to tell an authority about the wrongs of another example		I know I've been late for work three times this week, but why did you have to rat on me?
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2024-05-14
		© www.vizzz.com

word	904	bargain on
definition		to consider that something could happen example		Computer programs often have bugs because of things the programmer hadn't bargained on.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2024-05-10
		© www.vizzz.com

word	340	close down
definition		close or shut some place or machine completely example		The owner was forced to close down the business as nobody wanted to buy its products anymore.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		2024-05-13
		© www.vizzz.com

word		flash cards
definition		vizzz credit card sized flash cards - 7 days of revision example		Instructions: Print on A4 paper. CUT into credit card sized units, or FOLD, first vertically then horizontally 3 times to form a concertina like pocket chart.
series	000	random phrasal verbs
update		7 days from: 2024-05-10 © www.vizzz.com